Return of investment

Return of investment (ROI) measures the gain or loss generated on an investment relative to the amount of money invested. In other words, it measures how much money was made on the investment as a percentage of the invested capital.

If IBSP Capital invests 100,000 Euros and gets back 115,000 Euros, this means that the return of investment is 15%. It is easy to calculate the percentage by dividing the return with the invested capital.

$$15\,000/100\,000 = 0,15 = 15\%$$

$$\text{NET PROFIT} / \text{INVESTMENT} = \text{ROI}$$

This useful metric helps investors to know how efficiently each Euro invested in a project is at producing a profit. Investors not only use this ratio to measure how well an investment performed, they also use it to compare the performance of different investments of all types and sizes. In purely economic terms, it is one way of considering profits in relation to capital invested.

Forex Trading

Forex trading is a global decentralized market for trading of currencies. This includes all aspects of buying, selling and exchanging currencies at current or determined prices. In our investment concept we use forex trading as one of our investments areas. This is a well-known method of investing capital. The biggest participant in this market is larger international banks. Why not use the same methods as they do to make a return on your investment?

Start-up's

A startup is an entrepreneurial venture, typically describing newly emerged, fast-growing business. Definition of the startup usually refers to a company, a partnership or an organization designed to rapidly develop scalable business models. We invest in startups, in growing markets and in different countries where our startup investments are made by our in-house experts. Since we have a well known company group we often get proposals to invest in different areas. We invest small amounts in different companies to minimize the risk and maximize the profit. Maybe it is a Microloan or Peer to Peer loan that is needed to get the startup up and running. We make custom solutions for every startup where we invest.

Sport Trading

We have chosen to take Sport Trading to a new level and create opportunities to win instead of losing. We use several Sport Trading software, which calculate and eliminate the risk of this trading. Together with our online experts we have proven that this trade gives high return.
